

Welcome to Casa Cara Lodge

Dear Guest

Welcome to Casa Cara it is great our great pleasure to host you!

May you thoroughly enjoy your visit and leave with a song in your heart. On that note (pun intended,) take the following into account.

To bring you farm-fresh ingredients we send our kitchen staff (called runners) to scour the countryside. They visit local organic farms to source these fresh ingredients. As you may know, Parys falls within the Lion Route. Therefore, we often have to replace our runners. Should you be interested, a position has opened this week. No real kitchen skills required. As long as you're super fit, a fast runner and you have superior crocodile-fighting and lion-avoidance skills, the job is yours. Bring your longest kitchen knife and running shoes. "Scars" our resident runner will be happy to give you a crash course. An added bonus is the massive danger pay benefits!

While waiting for the fresh ingredients to arrive, our Sous Chef (coincidentally named Sue) prepares your meal from scratch. We all know that attention to detail and quality takes a little bit longer.

Our kitchen has been relocated but it's still a long walk, making our waiters extremely fit. We have lost many of them to the lucrative ultra-marathon circuit overseas as they are in high demand by teams like Nike and Reebok. If your interest lies in the professional running circuit you should apply as a Casa Cara waiter. Be patient though as there is a long waiting list.

Wondering what to do while waiting for your food?

- ❖ You could go for a swim in our crystal-clear pool.
- ❖ You could take the kids to visit the kiddies play area or leave them with one of our professional childminders.
- ❖ Count the countless birds that fly by.
- ❖ Visit our animal park with an assortment of animals, some of which you've possibly never seen before.
- ❖ Identify shapes in the clouds that glide by overhead.
- ❖ Enjoy basking in the Free State sun.
- ❖ Go for a walk.
- ❖ Collect wildflowers in the surrounding veld.
- ❖ Check out the calves of our very fit waiters.

Thus, you are not waiting. You are having fun. And then, as if by magic your food appears!

Due to all the above, be advised that there might be a slight delay with your food order. Depending on how busy we are you can expect your food in 20 - 40 minutes.

You've probably figured it out by now? We're just trying to keep you busy while giving your waiter time to deliver your drinks order.

Enjoy your visit we would love to see you back here soon.

The Casa Cara team
